From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 22.

Madrid, January 1.

THere are frequent Councils held at Court, to consider of Means to raise Money for carrying on the War; and as it is not easie to find those Means, the Members of those Councils differing much in their Sentiments, their Debates are often very warm; And not many days ago such hot Words pass'd in Council between the Duke of Medina Celi, and the Count de la Estrella President of the Council of the Treasury, that the rest had enough to do to make up a Reconciliation between them. Some private Persons have presented a Memorial to the King and Council, in which they desire Leave to form a Company in order to trade to the Philippine Islands; And 'tis thought the King will grant their Request, because they have offer'd him an Annual Don Gratuit (or Free-gift) of 500000 Crowns. The Duke de Turis is made Generalissimo of all the Galleys of the Spanish Monarchy, both those of Italy and those of Spain: The King has likewise declar'd him a Lieutenant General of his Land Forces. The Troops sent by the Marshal de Tesse to reinforce the Army before Gibraltar, cannot, 'tis thought, arrive in that Camp till the 15th of this Month at soonest. Two days ago the Marquis de Thoui Lieutenant General set out from hence to take upon him the Command of the Siege of Gibraltar, till the Marshal de Tesse's arrival; the Marquis de Villadarias is recall'd, the Court not being satisfied with his Conduct: And the Ammunition of War which the Squadron commanded by the Baron de Pointis brought into the Bay of Gibraltar, and put ashore, to be employ'd against that Town, being almost all consumed, by reason of the great Fire made upon the Place, Orders have been given for sending thither forthwith, half the Ammunition that remains in the Magazines of Cadix, Cartagena, and Malaga.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 17.

Venice, Dec. 27. The 500 Imperial Horse, which with 300 Foot march'd on this side the Adige towards the Po, to endeavour to succour Mirandola, or to draw the Grand Prior of France that way, arriv'd some days ago in the Valleys of the Ferrareze situate on the Left of the Po, and belonging to the Pope. They would have pass'd that River near Figarolo: But found no Boats, the Grand Prior of France having taken Care they should all be carried to the other side. They were likewise inform'd that the Count de Bissy and the Marquis d'Esclainvilliers were prepar'd to dispute their Passage with a Body of Troops. Whereupon they went lower down towards Lagoscuro, hoping to find an easier Passage thereabouts; but had Intelligence that the French were advanc'd over against that Place, and besides, that they had made Intrenchments at Buondeno, where they were to cross the Arm of the Po that runs to Ferrara. Thus finding no Means of succeeding in their Design, they march'd back to the Trentin. The Advices from the Bressan tell us the Imperialists continue in their former Posts and to intrench themselves in them; and being in great want of Forrage have extended their Right along the Foot of the Mountains to the River Mela. They had made 2 General Forrages; in the first of which a Trooper of the Regiment of Count Silla Martinengo assassinated a German Officer, with design to rob him: But being seiz'd by the Germans and carried to General Molino, he caus'd Justice to be done upon him. Captain Giorgio Macarica, being on his way to his Quarters at Santo Eufemia, was attack'd by 15 Ferraburi (Banditi so call'd,) which the Germans have made use of from the Time the War begun. They shot at him with Musketoons but did not wound him: So he got safe to his Quarters, whence he immediately return'd with 20 of his Soldiers, and pursuing the Banditi took 10 of them, and sent them to Brescia, where they will be punish'd according to their Deserts. The Imperialists report positively, that 4 Regiments of Horse are coming to them, and as they say are already arriv'd in the County of Lodrone, above the Lake of Idro, on the Frontiers of the Bressan. The Grand Prior of France, has also receiv'd from Piemont, a Reinforcement of 7 Regiments of Horse, who with some Regiments of Foot are posted on the Oglio, to streighten the Imperialists on that side. Signior Francesco Molino, Proveditor General on the Terra Firma, having executed that Office the usual Term, the Senate has elected into his Place the Chevalier Delfino, who was lately Proveditor General of the Fleet. The 24th of this Month, a Proclamation was publish'd by Order of the Senate, by which, upon Payment of the Sums that shall be appointed by the Nobles that are to be nominated for that Purpose, the Banditi that are Subjects of the Republick are pardon'd; those excepted who stand charg'd with Crimes against the Government, &c. By Letters from Constantinople, the freshest of which are dated the last of October, we have been inform'd of the Alterations that have happen'd in that Court. About the End of September last, Sultan Achmet III. depos'd and banish'd into Asia, the Grand Vizier Hassan Bashaw his Brother-in-Law, and put into his Place Achmet Bashaw surnam'd Calai Lukoche, who is about 60 Years old, and has the Reputation of being a Man of great Bravery. He was born in Cappadocia of Christian Parents of the Greek Church. About 15 Years ago he was Captain Bashaw or Admiral, and afterwards Governour of the Castles of the Dardanel. Then Bashaw of Diarbekir in Mesopotamia, and twice Bashaw of Trebisonde, Sebaste, and Bagdat. He was afterwards made Caimacan or Governour of Constantinople; in which Office he acquir'd much Reputation by the Care he took to maintain Plenty of Provisions in that City, and to establish good Order and Safety in it. In Conclusion he was made Bashaw of Cyprus, and afterwards of Candia, whence he was sent for and made Grand Vizier. He has lately publish'd an Order, forbidding all Franks to wear the Habit of the Eastern People; and a Person belonging to the Dutch Ambassador having broke that Order, he caus'd him to be bastinadoed, and bid him go and complain to his Master. He has sent into all Parts of the Turkish Dominions, Orders for regulating the Affairs

Affairs of the Empire, and restoring the Discipline of the Troops, and perfect Obedience is paid to those Orders by all Persons concern'd, for fear of being punish'd. These Letters add, that a Person of Note sent by Prince Ragotski, was arriv'd at Constantinople, to beg Succours for that Prince, and was to have a speedy Audience of the Grand Vizier.

Castiglione, Dec. 31. We have Advice, that a Detachment of the Enemy of 400 Horse, and a like Number of Foot, have possess'd themselves of Bardolino, Garda, and San Vigilio, on the East side of the Lake of Garda, South of Monte-Baldo, to favour the Transportation of Provisions over the said Lake to their Army, and which is intercepted by the Barks that the Grand Prior of France has caus'd to be equip'd at Dezenzano. The Grand Prior on his Part, has possess'd himself of the Island and Castle of Sermione, situate at the End of a Point of Land that runs out a League into the Lake, between Dezenzano and Peschiara, and which will be of great Advantage to the Barks that cruise on the Imperial Transports. The Imperialists have likewise fitted out some Barks, but extremely inferior to, and much worse equip'd and mann'd than those of the Grand Prior. The Count de Medavi with 2000 Horse or Dragoons has taken possession of Palazzuolo, and that Post renders him Master of the Oglio, and of most Part of the Forrage that is in the Plain lying between that River and the Camp of the Enemy; who being extremely pent up in their Quarters, 'tis hoped will be oblig'd to march by the North End of the Lake of Garda, to get Subsistence in the Trentin or in the Territory of Vicenza.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 22.

Venice, Jan. 9. They write from the Bressan, that 500 French have taken Post on the little Island of Sermione on the Lake of Garda, but have not yet possess'd themselves of the Castle. There is a Scarcity of Corn in the Bressan; And the Imperialists being oblig'd to furnish themselves from the Trentin with most of their Subsistence, they suffer sometimes by the Delay of their Convoys. Abundance of Snow having fallen in these Parts, the Posts from Lombardy do not come to us so duly as usual.

Ratisbon, Jan. 11. 'Tis very confidently reported, and generally believ'd here, that Prince Eugene will march into Italy, towards the end of February or the beginning of March, with a Reinforcement of 26000 Men for the Imperial Army there; viz. 10000 Imperialists, 8000 Danes, and 8000 Prussians, all which are now actually quarter'd in Bavaria or in the Upper Palatinate.
